A Message from the Dean

Greetings!

Despite the frigid temperatures of the past month, attendance was superb at our past two chapter events, the Children's Choir Festival, and the Members' Recital. Andrea Baxter's presentation for choir directors was eye-opening, and her skill and energy gloriously opened up the sound of the children assembled for the festival service. Many thanks again to festival coordinators Deanna Muro and Helen Kegerreis for their efforts. Next year will mark the 25th year of the Children's Choir Festival and an extra-special anniversary program is being planned; stay tuned for more information! The joint chapter Members' Recital was well-played, featuring one of the most diverse programs in recent memory (including a fugue on the theme of "The Munsters!")

Our East End Organ Crawl on Saturday, March 7th promises to be an exciting outing. The previous issue of Suffolk Soundings incorrectly listed "Il Cappucino" as the lunch venue; unfortunately, that restaurant will not be available to us. Please RSVP to Thom Bohlert if you plan on attending the Organ Crawl, as this information will be helpful in determining alternate lunch plans. You can reach him at thbohlertfirstpres@hotmail.com, or by telephone at (631) 324-2397.

Also, the Scholarship Auditions and Scholarship Recital with Scott Montgomery are quickly approaching. Please take note of the opportunity to donate to the Suffolk Scholarship Fund (page 5). Thank you in advance for your support of this vital program, from which our region's budding organists directly benefit.

Best wishes, and see you soon,
Matthew Koraus

Chapter Programs In-Depth

Sat., March 7, 2015,

11am and 2pm

East End Organ Crawl

Chapter member Thom Bohlert, FAGO, will lead a tour of two instruments of note on the South Fork. We will meet first at 11am at the First Presbyterian Church of East Hampton, 120 Main Street, East Hampton, which houses a mid-sized instrument by Austin. Following a 12:30pm lunch, we will move to the historic Old Whalers' Church, 44 Union Street, Sag Harbor at 2pm, where the church's pastor, the Rev. Mark Philips, will lead a presentation on Long Island's oldest pipe organ (Henry Erben, 1845).

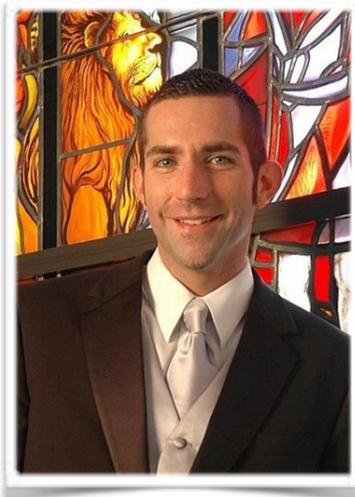

Members in attendance will have the opportunity to play at each location. The organ at First Presbyterian is a 27-rank, three-manual Austin with an enclosed Swell and Choir. The 8' and 4' stops and the celestes are especially warm, and the upper work, typical of the period, doesn't dominate. Most repertoire should work well. The organ at Old Whalers Church is mechanical action and has a nonstandard keyboard and a nonstandard, flat, parallel pedalboard. C is not where you expect it to be! This can be fun to explore and experience, but choose your pieces accordingly. Though recitalists have played all kinds of repertoire, English voluntaries or pieces that don't have a difficult pedal part may be good for a first run.

Please RSVP to Thom Bohlert at thbohlertfirstpres@hotmail.com, or by telephone at (631) 324-2397.

Directions to First Presbyterian: Take Route 27 (Sunrise Hwy.) east to Southampton, where the highway ends but Route 27 continues as a main street. In Southampton there is a well-marked intersection where Route 27 turns left. Continue through Water Mill, Bridgehampton, and Wainscott to East Hampton. In East Hampton there is another large intersection where Route 27 turns left (at the pond). Continue on 27 about a half-mile to First Presbyterian Church on the right side (the big white church). There is room to park in the driveway, or park on the street, observing the parking signs.

Sun., May 3rd, 2015, 3:30pm Scholarship Recital with Scott Montgomery

Nationally-renowned organist Scott Montgomery will present a dazzling variety of works on the new Glück instruments at the Church of St. Patrick, 400 Main Street, Huntington, NY 11743. Many of our members fondly remember Mr. Montgomery’s lively performances on Long Island a few years ago. His accessible and engaging program will surely resonate with both serious devotees of the instrument as well as first-time concert goers. Bring a friend!

Scholarship awards will be presented to this year’s successful candidates during the recital. A light reception will follow in the lower hall; all are welcome.

Admission $15 for adults, $10 for seniors, and students.

Sun., May 3rd, 2015, 6pm End-of-the-Year Dinner at Tutto Pazzo Restaurant, Huntington

Following the recital and reception, the End-of-the-Year Dinner will be held at Tutto Pazzo Tuscan-Italian Restaurant, 84 New York Avenue, Huntington, NY 11743. This restaurant is less than five minutes away from St. Patrick’s, our recital venue. We have a lovely private room reserved.

We will collect $35 CASH at the restaurant from each person. Please bring exact change.

Hors d’oeuvres such as mini-pizzettes, bruschetta, mozzarella sticks, and vegetables will be served first, followed by a fresh garden salad, and a choice of entree: 1) Rigatoni alla Vodka, 2) Eggplant Parmigiana, or 3) Chicken Francese. Dessert, coffee, tea, and soda are included. Wine and any other beverages are an extra charge which should be paid directly to the wait-staff by the individual. RSVP to Matt Koraus by April 20th to reserve your seat: matthewkoraus@gmail.com.
