Jillian Gardner is the Director of Music at First United Methodist Church in Huntsville, Alabama where she is the primary organist and administrates a program that includes over ten music ensembles for adults and children. She maintains an active concert career and has given recitals throughout the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom, performing in venues such as Fourth Presbyterian Church in Chicago, St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco, and St. Thomas 5th Avenue in New York City. Her tours in the United Kingdom have included performances at Liverpool Metropolitan Cathedral, St. Paul Cathedral in London, and St. Mary Redcliffe Church in Bristol. She has also been a featured artist for Organ Historical Society Conventions in Syracuse, NY (2014) and Minneapolis, MN (2017).

Gardner is a graduate of the Oberlin Conservatory, where she studied with James David Christie, and Marie-Louise Langlais. She studied with Isabelle Demers at Baylor University in Waco, Texas from 2015 to 2019, earning both a Master's degree in Organ Performance and the Advanced Performer's Certificate. Additional studies have taken her twice to the McGill Summer Organ Academy in Montréal, Canada (2013, 2015) where she studied with Olivier Latry, Hank Knox, and Hans-Ola Ericsson.

Ms. Gardner's will perform works by J.S. Bach, Louis Vierne, Joseph Bonnet, Maurice Duruflé, George Thalben-Ball, George Shearing, and Raymond Daveluy.

Join us for light refreshments in the narthex immediately following the recital.
